

ROTARY CLUB OF ABILENE

The Rotator

Service Above Self

THIS WEEK: June 1, 2018 - Seaton Higginbotham - Workforce

Seaton Higginbotham was born in Abilene, Texas, and graduated Texas Tech University in 1974. He has been happily married to Carolyn for 33 years and has three children and 18 grandchildren. Seaton is the president and CEO of Arrow Ford Mitsubishi in Abilene. He is currently Chairman elect for the Abilene Chamber of Commerce, Chairman of Team Workforce, and a member of the Abilene Industrial Foundation and the Development Corporation of Abilene. He is a past member of the Abilene City Council and past Chairman of the Texas Automobile Dealer Association. He believes that leadership is born in vision, fueled by passion, and achieved through diversity, partnership, and engagement.

LAST MEETING: May 25, 2018 - Michael Rice -
Asst City Manager

Michael Rice, the city's director of public works, in January was named interim assistant city manager.

Rice replaces James Childers who left to become assistant city manager for the city of Irving.

He presented a very interesting program and fielded a multitude of questions including a number about the city's pothole issue.

"Michael is a valued and important member of my leadership team, and I look forward to continuing to work with him in this new role," City Manager Robert Hanna said.

Rice will be interim assistant city manager for a few months before stepping into the role on a permanent basis, Hanna said. "This helps us provide a smooth transition," he said.

ROTARIAN OF THE WEEK

Bob McMillan

Bob McMillan was born in Philadelphia to a Texan father and New York mom. They moved to Houston when Bob was ten. Bob received an Electrical Engineering degree from the University of Houston and a Masters in Public Administration from Central Michigan.

With wife Joyce (a recently retired school teacher) he has a daughter, married and is an elementary music teacher and the mother of his grandson and granddaughter. Bob and Joyce's son is a transplant surgeon at UCLA Medical Center.

In the Air Force for 26 years, Bob flew KC 135s in

Rice has worked for the city for almost 2½ years. He has served as the director of public works the entire time. Before coming to Abilene, Rice held the same position for the city of Amarillo. Rice worked for Amarillo for about 32 years, serving in different capacities throughout his career there, before retiring from that city's employment.

NEXT WEEK: June 8, 2018 - Rafael Henao - Marketing

Rafael Henao is Director, Business Development at AbiMar Foods Inc. in the Abilene Area .

ANNOUNCEMENTS

CONGRATULATIONS

Sammy Guadarrama, the Cooper High School student who won our club's 4-Way Test speech contest, took third place recently during the district level competition.

RYLA

Have a high school teenager that might be interested in attending RYLA this year? If so, go to www.RYLA5790.org to register. The student must be 16 prior to the start of the program. Dates for RYLA this year are June 14-17.

support of many varied missions around the world. He was deployed as Squadron Commander during Desert Storm in '91. He spent some time at Wright Patterson in acquisition of simulator systems for the B1, the KC135, the F16, and the C130. Having retired from the Air Force, he is General Manager for Abilene Aero.

Number one on the list of hobbies and interests are the grandkids who live west of Waxahachie where he owns some acreage.

Bob has begun a bit of farming / ranching and will be transitioning there full time when he retires in October.

Bob currently serves on the Executive Board for the Presbyterian Care Mission and on the Board of Directors for Ben Richey Boys Ranch. He is an Elder at First Central Presbyterian Church and serves as church treasurer. For fun he cycles, flies, and cruises.
